

Distant Future

You came in my life in the nick of time you saved me from my despair

I was just lost undecided headed nowhere

And you didn't know I was the troubled soul waiting for direction

You didn't see that I was incomplete awaiting my construction

(CHORUS)

Stop thinking, bout the distant future stop resisting my words I'm telling the truth

My heart belongs to you

I remember the day you took my breath away for the very first time

See nothing has changed my heart still feels the same beating for you

And you didn't know I was the troubled soul waiting for direction

You didn't see that I was incomplete awaiting my construction

(CHORUS)

Stop thinking, bout the distant future stop resisting my words I'm telling the truth

My heart belongs to you

You came in my life in the nick of time you saved me from my despair

(CHORUS)

Stop thinking, bout the distant future stop resisting my words I'm telling the truth

My heart belongs to you

Stop thinking, bout the distant future stop resisting my words I'm telling the truth

My heart belongs to you
