

Life Got in the Way

Woke up to the news that it's over

She said it wasn't me I didn't owe her

But Tonight I'll be tearing down the walls that keep me bound up inside

Tonight I'm determined to find the reason why

Chorus

Cause I would give you everything done anything you want

Took you to the moon let you lay among the stars

I'll guess I'll never get that chance

What are you thinking baby do you know where you're at?

Once I'm gone there's no turning back!

Took me by surprise it was something I didn't expect

I know we had our problems but no one's perfect

But tonight, I'll be staring at the phone it's just a matter of time.

Tonight, there's only silence to accompany my cries

Chorus

Are you happy now?

Tonight

Are you happy now?

This is it let the credits roll

I have nothing left to give you

Cause I would give you everything done anything you want

Life got in the way the wide eyed boy slowly conformed

I guess I should have seized the day

Chorus
