

Never Enough Time

Time ticks by

The tears we cry

The sadness held inside the chances expired

The hope of what's to come is slowly undone by fear

Seize the day

There's a price to pay

The burden of a heart

Too big to let things go

The unsettled mind fearing the unknown

This is life aint no rehearsal

Life aint no rehearsal

Open up your eyes and see

There's never enough

Never Enough

(CHORUS)

Never Enough, Never Enough, Never Enough time

Seize the day don't let them slip away

There's never enough time

The tears we cry of the years gone by there's never enough time
