LYRICS

I WON'T BACK DOWN AGAIN

You can never see the hold you have on me
You'd be the death of me
Your over baring status has weakened me
You've cut me down to your knees

But I'm holding back emotion
Keeping my devotion
You can't steal that from me
I'm a man on a mission there aint no intermission
Have a little faith and you'll see

Enough is enough
i'm gonna stand my ground
And I won't back down again
I've taken too much,
yeah but now I'm tough
And I won't back down again

Endless paranoia is provoking me
You've set this trend don't you see
I hung on your words like a chimpanzee
Now I want to break free

But I'm holding back emotion
Keeping my devotion
You can't steal that from me
I'm a man on a mission there aint no inter-
mission
Have a little faith and you'll see

Enough is enough
i'm gonna stand my ground
And I won't back down again
I've taken too much,
yeah but now I'm tough
And I won't back down again
Enough is enough
i'm gonna stand my ground
And I won't back down again
I've taken too much,
yeah but now I'm tough
And I won't back down again

No I won't back down again
No I won't back down again
No I won't back down again
No I won't back down again

NEW STATE OF MIND

I was down

Wasn't where I'm supposed to be

I have found

The culprit of my misery

I'm my own worst enemy

Every time that I am near

There's always something that stops Me

This journey's nowhere to go

nowhere to go

A new direction is what I need to grow

A perfect snapshot in time

A new state of mind

Words are cheap

It's actions that will reap the seeds

I hold the key

I can shape my destiny

Every time that I am near

There's always something that stops Me

I can't be controlled by fear

Only I can shift my beliefs

This journey's nowhere to go

nowhere to go

A new direction is what I need to grow

A perfect snapshot in time

A new state of mind

I've found the strength to be strong,

when all is wrong

Through the thick of the storm I soldier on

To build a life that's all mine

A new state of mind

Every time that I am near

There's always something that stops Me

This journey's nowhere to go

nowhere to go

A new direction is what I need to grow

A perfect snapshot in time

A new state of mind

I've found the strength to be strong,

when all is wrong

Through the thick of the storm I soldier on

To build a life that's all mine

A new state of mind

A new state of mind

A new state of mind

A new state of mind

Been through a Rocky Road
Lord knows I have Showed Restraint
I was the unlucky one Confused by the things I've seen Find it hard to Believe World's gone cold
Lost my soul
Thought I would end up Alone
Time for Change
Cue Next frame
I'll never be the same

Blown Away, Blown Away
by the way I found You
I don't mind what the others say
by the way I found you
All this time it's been staring me
In the face

The Feelings Sinking in Takes time for me to deal with change
Stuck in my ways
Scared of the things I Feel
Find it hard to reveal
Boys at Play
Seizing Days
While keeping you at bay
Time for Change

Cue Next frame
Time to ignite the flame
by the way I want You
I don't mind what the others say
by the way I want You
All this time it's been staring me
In the face

You never have to be alone
You never have to keep your heart unshown
I'm sorry for the pain I've caused
So drop your guard
I know it's hard
I promise I will heal these Scars

Blown Away, Blown Away
by the way I love You
I don't mind what the others say
by the way I love You
All this time it's been staring me
All this time it's been staring me
All this time it's been staring me
In the Face

NO WORRIES

There used to be, so much harmony
Till recently, it went away from me
Now I realise, the problems in Life
Back then I was oblivious,
back then I was blind

You can stop the drink
Be careful in Life
But Eventually
Your destiny won't be on your side

I wanna go back through life
When everything was fine
No Worries or Troubles or
Bad thoughts through my mind
Nothing was too serious
It was all a bit mysterious
But now it's gone
The Will to carry on

Now I realise, the problems in Life
Back then I was oblivious,
back then I was blind
What's the point of going on
Cause round the corner
It could all be gone

You can stop the drink
Be careful in Life

I wanna go back through life
When everything was fine
No Worries or Troubles or
Bad thoughts through my mind
Nothing was too serious
It was all a bit mysterious
But now it's gone
The Will to carry on

What's the point of going on
It could all be gone

I wanna go back through life
When everything was fine
No Worries or Troubles or
Bad thoughts through my mind
Nothing was too serious
It was all a bit mysterious
But now it's gone

TAKE IT OR LEAVE IT

Trying trying trying to read the signs
Trying trying rying to read your mind
But I'm still stood here Far away from getting near to unlock your hearts desires

But im still waiting Waiting for a glimpse of hope that you feel the same as I do

Cause you've got me
wrapped around your finger
I'm stumbling over backwards to
Sell myself to break through your silence

So Take it or leave it,
Tell me don't lead me on
Take it or leave it,
Before the moment has gone

Waiting waiting waiting for you to call
Do you expect me to do it all?
Does this mean she's keen But is holding back so I react to give her the upper hand
Or does she hate me
And is posing coy with evil ploys which I just don't understand

Cause you've got me
Sell myself to break through your silence

So Take it or leave it,
Tell me don't lead me on
Take it or leave it,

This is the bed you've laid
Look at the mess you've made
Stop playing my heart
Just lay it on the line
Give me a clear cut
Give me a clear cut sign

So Take it or leave it,
Tell me don't lead me on
Take it or leave it,
Before the moment has gone away

So Take it or leave it,
Tell me don't lead me on
Take it or leave it,

LOOK THE OTHER WAY

It's time to move on

Although I've been wronged

I can't carry on life this way

Harsh words were said

Bad thoughts plagued my head

I can't fight what is set in stone

I was so ashamed

The feeling still remains

The steps I took to

Look the other way

Look the other way

Look the other way

To see me through the day

The years have passed

With shadows overcast

No more living your life in the past

Now I am through the darkness

Started a new perspective

One that leads me

To see the wood through the trees

I was so ashamed

The feeling still remains

The steps I took to

Look the other way

Look the other way

Look the other way

To see me through the day

I was so ashamed

The feeling still remains

The steps I took to

Look the other way

Look the other way

Look the other way

I was so ashamed

The feeling still remains

The steps I took to

Look the other way

Look the other way

Look the other way

To see me through the day
